CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Feb 19-22: The Third Annual Conference of The Canadian Orthopaedic Nurses Association will be held in Toronto, Ontario. For further information contact: The Conference Publicity Committee of The Canadian Orthopaedic Nurses Association, 43 Wellesley Street East, Toronto, Ontario M4Y 1H1, Canada. (416) 360-4386 or (519) 673-3761.

Feb 26-28: The U.S. Olympic Medical Committee, with the assistance of the American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine, is sponsoring the Olympic Sports Medicine Conference at the Sheraton Hotel, Boston, Massachusetts. The local course directors will be Robert Leach, Dinesh Patel and Bertram Zarins.

Mar 5-7: A postgraduate course on Current Practices in Rehabilitation of the Spinal Cord Injured Person will be held in Richmond, Virginia. The course, sponsored by the Virginial Regional Spinal Cord Injury System of the Virginia Department of Rehabilitative Services, McGuire Veterans Administration Medical Center, and the Department of Continuing Medical Education, Medical College of Virginia, will emphasize the multidisciplinary approach to the care of the spinal cord-injured patients. The course is approved for 13 hours of AMA Category 1 credit and 1.3 Continuing Education Units. For more information contact: Kathy Johnson, Continuing Medical Education, Box 48, MCV Station, Richmond, Virginia 23298. (814) 786-0494.

Mar 13-16: Isokinetics Seminar, sponsored by CYBEX Division of LUMEX, Las Vegas. Three-day, continuing education accredited seminar on the use of Isokinetics for Sports Medicine and Orthopedic Rehabilitation will be preceded by an intense, one-day program on the potential applications of CYBEX II. Separate registration is required. For program and registration information contact Kieran Heidemann, CYBEX Division of LUMEX, 100 Spence Street, Bay Shore, New York 11706.

Apr 13-18: A Basic and Advanced Course on the Operative Treatment of Fractures and Nonunions will be held in San Diego, California, sponsored by the Association for the Study of Internal Fixation, A.O. International and the Division of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of South Florida. Professors Maurice Mueller, Martin Allgower and other noted Swiss and North American surgeons will be on the faculty. Registration is strictly limited to 200 Basic and 50 Advanced participants. For further information contact Phillip G. Spiegel, MD, University of South Florida, 12901 N. 30th Street, Box 16, Tampa, Florida 33612 or call (813) 971-4500, extension 358.

April 17-19: The American Cancer Society is holding a National Conference on Cancer Prevention and Detection at the Palmer House, Chicago, Illinois. Attendance is limited to physicians, dentists, medical students and cancer research investigators at the doctoral level. This conference meets the criteria for 14 1/2 hours of AMA Category I credit. For more information contact: Nicholas G. Bottiglieri, MD, American Cancer Society, National Conference, Cancer Prevention and Detection, 777 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10017.

Apr 19-30: A postgraduate Course in Orthopaedics will be held at the Orthopaedic Department, Singapore General Hospital, Singapore. The course is sponsored by the World Orthopaedic Concern. For more information contact: Kamal Bose, Course Coordinator, University Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, Singapore General Hospital, Singapore 0316, Republic of Singapore.

May 1-4: Seminar on the use of Isokinetics for Sports Medicine and Orthopedic Rehabilitation, Washington, D.C., sponsored by CYBEX. For further information contact Kieran Heidemann, CYBEX Division of LUMEX, (continued on page 183)
100 Spence Street, Bay Shore, New York 11706.

May 3-7: Annual Meeting and Scientific Program of The American Fracture Association at Royal Orleans Hotel, New Orleans, Louisiana. Guest Lecturer will be Ejnar Eriksson, MD, of Stockholm, Sweden. Program Chairman is Irving Redler, MD. For more information contact: Barbara Dehorry, Executive Secretary, P.O. Box 668, Bloomington, Illinois 61701. (309) 662-4491.

May 24-28: Seventh Annual Meeting of The International Society for the Study of the Lumbar Spine in New Orleans, Louisiana, for members and invited guests.

May 24-June 2: The Eighth Pediatric Orthopedic International Seminar will be held in San Francisco, California. For more information contact: Mihran O. Tachdjian, MD, c/o Pediatric Orthopedic Seminar, Children's Memorial Hospital, 2300 Children's Plaza, Chicago, Illinois 60614. (312) 649-4358.

May 26-30: The Third International Workshop on Bone Histomorphometry will be held at Sun Valley, Idaho. For more information contact: Dr. A.M. Parfitt, Bone and Mineral Research Laboratory, Henry Ford Hospital, 2799 West Grand Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan 48202.

June 7-13: The San Francisco Orthopaedics Review Course—1980 will be held in San Francisco, California. The course, including an Anatomy Review, is approved for 50 hours of AMA Category 1 credit. For more information contact: Extended Programs in Medical Education, University of California, 1308-3rd Avenue, San Francisco, California 94113. Registration Information (415) 666-2894 or 666-2483; program information (415) 666-4215.

Aug 25-29: The Eighth International Congress of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation will be held in Stockholm, Sweden. For more information contact: Harald Broden, Karolinska Hospital, S-104 01, Stockholm, Sweden.

Sept 4-5: Certifying Examination, Oral and Written, of the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery, Chicago, Illinois.

Sept 28-Oct 4: The International Society for Prosthetics and Orthotics (I.S.P.O.) in collaboration with INTERBOR (The International Association of Orthotists and Prosthetists) will have its third World Congress in Bologna, Italy. The program will cover technical, scientific and administrative topics associated with amputation, prosthetics, orthotics and related areas in orthopaedics and rehabilitation engineering. For more information contact: Organizing Bureau: Studio B.C., via ugo basi 10, 40123, Bologna, Italy.

Oct 8-12: The 34th annual meeting of The American Academy for Cerebral Palsy and Developmental Medicine will be held in Boston, Massachusetts. For more information contact: American Academy for Cerebral Palsy and Developmental Medicine, P.O. Box 11083, 2405 Westwood Avenue, Richmond, Virginia 23230.

The Johns Hopkins University-University of Maryland Multipurpose Arthritis Center announces a Fellowship in the Surgery of Arthritis. The one-year program, beginning July 1, 1980, will include experience in joint replacement, hand reconstruction, and microvascular surgery, and participation in ongoing laboratory research in the microcirculation of bone. Applicants should have finished orthopedic residency training and be eligible for Maryland licensure. For more information contact: David S. Hungerford, MD, 5601 Loch Raven Boulevard, Baltimore, Maryland 21239.

The Osteogenesis Imperfecta Foundation announces a Fellowship in Osteogenesis Imperfecta Research. The yearly stipend will be $15,000. For further information contact: Harold A. Sofield, MD, Chairman, Medical Advisory Board, Osteogenesis Imperfecta Foundation, Shriner's Hospital, 2211 North Oak Park Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60653.